The 18th of December CABS will be holding it's annual Holiday Party and its Annual General Meeting. We have set aside about 200 games for the raffle this year. Everyone is invited to bring in snacks & dessert. CABS will spring for the pizza. Pop will be available onsite for purchase. We are going to be at FORT RAPIDS and not our usual location —so it will be BYOG ... Bring your own games . Doors to be open from 3pm to 3am !!! AGM portion of the night will start at 8pm.

Good Games - Good Friends - Good FunMATH TRADE AT AGM !!!

We are hosting a Math Trade at the CABS Annual General Meeting at Fort Rapids on Friday, December 18th, 2009. We welcome all CABS members to participate, as well as anyone who would like to visit CABS that day!

We have it set up as a geeklist: <http://www.geekdo.com/geeklist/49420>

Interested participants merely need to start adding undesired games from their collection to the geeklist. Then follow the instructions on the list. We have over 150 games on the list already.

Those new to this - This is just an automated swap meet. The computer can figure out all the different trades so that you will end up with the game you want even though you may not have a game the person you are trading with wants.
