Good Games - Good Friends - Good Fun

The Buckeye Game Fest will be hosting a World Wide Catan Championships pre-qualifier for the first time this year. The tournament times are up on www.buckeyegamefest.com. If you are interested in participating in this tournament, there are a total of 64 openings. There will be 32 seats available on Friday and the same on Saturday. Each participant will play 3 games and your place and points scored will determine who advances to the semi-finals. If you play on Friday and don't do very well, you are welcome to play again on Saturday to improve your chances of advancing if there are still seats available. The top 16 players from Friday and Saturday will advance to the semi-final round on Sunday at 11:00AM. The four winners of the semi-final round will then advance to the final round Sunday at 1:30PM. If you win the pre-qualifier at Buckeye

Game Fest then you will go on to compete at ORI-GENS 2012 for a seat at the World tournament to be held at Normandy Farms near Valley Forge, PA.

Transportation, admission, and hotel room for the winner will be paid for at ORIGINS 2012. If you want to participate, you can send me a geek mail, or email me at spalenshus@gmail.com to get registered. - Scot
